

PRECONFERENCE CME, IAPCON 2020, February 13, 2020

S. No.	Name of the Workshop	Objective	Faculty	Target Audience	No. of Participants	Venue	Half/Full Day	Requirements	Registration Fee
1	Incorporating spiritually matured practices in day to day palliative care	Empowering multi-disciplinary team members of palliative services to be able to incorporate spiritual aspects of care in their daily practices.	Dr. Soumitra Sankar Dutta; Dr. Joris Geilen; Mary Ann Mukadan; Dr. Nagesh Simha; Dr. Seema Rao; Joan Marston; K.V. Ganapathy; Procheta Mahanta	Physicians, Nurses and Paramedical staff working in Palliative Care NGO's and Volunteers working in Palliative Setting	50	? Assam Don Bosco University, Sonapur	Full Day - 9am to 4pm	One Coordinator & Two Volunteers; AV Facility Hall; Breakfast; Lunch; Evening Tea	Rs. 1000 per head
2	Psychosocial Care and Role of Psychologists in Palliative Care for Overall Wellbeing of Patients	Basic orientation for use of psychological tools to screen psychological distress, use basic counselling skills and certain psychological therapies for palliative care patients (adult , children & adolescents) as well as to provide support care for the families.	Three psychologists from MIND India, Institute of Positive Mental Health & Research, Guwahati, Assam	Students & practitioners of Psychology, Psychiatry, Physiotherapy, Nursing and any other health sector	30	State Cancer Institute, Lecture Hall	Half Day - 9am to 1pm	One Coordinator & Two volunteers; AV Facility Hall; Breakfast	Rs. 500 per head
3	Enhancing Nurses' role in Palliative Care	Understand the concept of Palliative Care, know the importance of patients & families, enhancing symptom assessment techniques, knowledge about basic nursing care, end of life care and the need for home care.	Sr. Stella Virginia & her team	All nursing students & practicing nurses	50	AINE auditorium	Full Day - 9am to 4pm	One Coordinator & Two Volunteers; AV Facility; Breakfast; Lunch; Evening tea	Rs. 1000 per head (if not sponsored)
4	Basic Neurology for Palliative Care Providers	Understanding neurological issues in Palliative Care; importance of neurological complications in palliative care patients; know how to do a complete neurological assessment in palliative care patients; educate about basic neurological care at the end of life.	Dr. Roop Gursahani & Dr. Benzi Kluger	MBBS Students, Doctors, Neurologists, Neurosurgeons	50	Nemcare Hospital Auditorium	Full Day - 9am to 4pm	One Coordinator & Two Volunteers; AV Facility; Breakfast; Lunch; Evening tea	Rs. 1000 per head
5	Basics of Paediatric Palliative Care	Understanding Importance of Palliative care interventions in Paediatric patients & incorporating changes in practice to improve quality of life of paediatric palliative patients.	Prof. Julia Downing & Dr. Mary Ann Mukadan	MBBS Students, Doctors, Paediatricians, Paediatric Surgeons, Haemato-Oncologists	50	BBCI Hospital Auditorium	Full Day - 9am to 4pm	One Coordinator & Two Volunteers; AV Facility; Breakfast; Lunch; Evening tea	Rs. 1000 per head
6	Interventional Pain Management	Understanding the need of intervention in Pain management, importance of interventional pain management, educate the basic interventional techniques in pain management	Dr. Arif Ahmed; Dr. Kalpajit Dutta; Dr. Shiv Rana;	MBBS Doctors, Anaesthesia PG students, Pain specialists	50	GNRC Hospital Auditorium	Full Day - 9am to 4pm	One Coordinator & Two Volunteers; AV Facility; Breakfast; Lunch; Evening tea	Rs. 1500 per head
7	Role of Physiotherapy in improving Quality of Life in Palliative Care patients	Understanding need of physiotherapy in palliative care to improve the quality of life	Sandeep & Priyanka, AIIMS Delhi	Physiotherapy students & practitioners, Nurses, Doctors	50	USTM Auditorium	Full Day - 9am to 4pm	One Coordinator & Two Volunteers; AV Facility; Breakfast; Lunch; Evening tea	Rs. 1000 per head
8	Quality Assessment of IAPC Course	Evaluate the quality standard of IAPC Certificate Course on Pain & Palliative Care and implement improvement of the overall standard of the course.	Dr. Seema Rao & Nisha	IAPC Course Coordinators	50	Auditorium, State Cancer Institute	Half Day - 9am to 12pm	One Coordinator & Two Volunteers; AV Facility; Breakfast; Lunch	Sponsored by IAPC
9	Qualitative Research	Basics of Qualitative Research & Areas of implementation in Indian Palliative Care	Stanford Faculty	PG Students, MSWs, MSc Nurses working in Oncology & Palliative Care	50	Auditorium, State Cancer Institute	Half Day - 1pm to 5pm	One Coordinator & Two Volunteers; AV Facility; Lunch; Evening Tea	Rs. 1000 per head
10	Palliative Care & Humanitarian Issues	NOT FINAL	Dr. Mhoira Leng & Dr. Chitra Venkatesh	Palliative Care Doctors, Nurses, Social workers, volunteers	50	2nd Hall in BBCI	Full Day - 9am to 4pm	One Coordinator & Two Volunteers; AV Facility; Lunch; Evening Tea	Rs. 1000 per head
11	Quality Improvement Methodology	Provide opportunity for the QI team leaders to work directly with their mentors and an in depth understanding about the central tenets of the improvement science and A3-thinking	Dr. Karl Lorenz, Michelle DeNatale, Jake Mickelsen, Dr. Nandini Vallath, Dr. Sarbani Ghosh Laskar	Predecided participants	35	Hotel Gateway Grandeur	Full Day - 9am to 4pm	Predecided	Predecided